

DR. AUSTIN TAY

Chair

Dr. Austin Tay has a PhD in Organizational Psychology with Birkbeck College, University of London. He has a Masters in Psychology of Work with the University of Leicester, a Masters in International and Commercial Law and a Bachelors in Psychology with Socio-Legal Studies with the University of Buckingham, and a Postgraduate Diploma in Law with the University of Law London.

Austin is the President of the Hong Kong Psychological Society and has served on the HKPS Council as Public Relations Officer (2017-2019). He is a Chartered and an Associate Fellow of the British Psychological Society, a Chartered Scientist with the Science Council, an Associate Fellow and Registered Industrial-Organizational Psychologist with the Hong Kong Psychological Society. He has 26 years of working experience across various specialisations including C-Level executive assessments, executive coaching, career management and outplacement, volume psychological assessment, training, project management, sales and marketing, business development and operations. Before becoming a Psychologist, Austin has held various senior sales and business development positions both in Singapore and Hong Kong in the Security, Construction and Food & Beverage industries.

Austin is the Founder and Principal Consultant of Omnipsi Consulting, where he has worked with various international clients in the delivering of leadership assessments, executive coaching, training and outplacement services. He is also an ACT practitioner and an expert in workplace bullying.