

HILARY CHAN

Committee Member

Ms. Hilary Chan is a Registered Industrial-Organizational Psychologist with a commercial background. Her career aspiration is promote “Happy Employee, Positive Corporate, Flourishing Society” in the Chinese population. In the past 10 years, Hilary actively put her positive and IO psychology knowledge into applications, eagerly promoting workplace efficiency and well-being through leading corporate consulting projects, change management projects and various forms of training (including workshops & teambuilding).

Hilary specializes in the use of psychological assessments and art tools in facilitating employees to identify their strengths and provide career coaching; design and implementation of strength-based selection and assessments, leading organizational development and bottom-up change management practices. Her strength-based approach receives very positive feedback from candidates, employees and corporate, and her clients include reputable MNCs, Fortune 500 companies, universities, public sector and NGOs.